Food Guide

Restaurants, beach bars, bars and tascas. Ayamonte and eastern Algarve

BY JOAN RESINA, DIRECTOR OF HOTEL BOUTIQUE ISLA CANELA GOLF

I recommend downloading the Isla Canela app. It is a good a good tool to know what's going on in Isla Canela. It also shows all the establishments, not only restaurants and entertainment, but also events and information of interest during your stay.

RESTAURANTS. "I'm referring to establishments with place settings and table cloths, proper restaurants"

Thebussem Restaurant.

Undoubtedly the restaurant with the most creative cuisine in Ayamonte, combining local produce, Mediterranean cuisine and fusion cuisine. The tasting menus are highly recommended. Average price: 30€. It is located in the Hotel Isla Canela Golf. <https://www.golfislacanela.com/otros-servicios/restaurante-thebussem>

El minuterero.

Are you looking for a seafood restaurant where you can eat good fish? On the Pinillo promenade, in the Isla Canela Marina, in the Punta del Moral area. It is a good option, it has always had a good name. I recommend making a reservation.

El Choco.

The coquinas, prawns and fish in general. About 40€/p/ person. [http://www.tripadvisor.es/Restaurant\_R view](http://www.tripadvisor.es/Restaurant_R view)

Casa Luciano

A classic Ayamonte restaurant with good fish. About 50 € p/ person. <http://www.casaluciano.com>

LPA The Culinary Bar

Located in the Plaza de la Lota and known as "La Puerta Alta", Fabio Zerbo has turned his restaurant into a gastronomic reference in Ayamonte. A design decoration and interior design that will make you enjoy a magnificent creative and quality menu in a very cosy atmosphere. It would be wrong to recommend any dish in particular because all the ones I have eaten have been fantastic, but if you ask me... the risotto and for carnivores the Tomahawk. Essential book well in advance.

TAPAS. "Here I include bars, taverns and tascas. They're all quite small so large groups aren't an option, but there's no problems for groups of 6-8 people."

El Paladar

It sells so much every day that freshness is guaranteed. The place is a tasca/tavern. There is nothing more typical in Ayamonte for tapas, but as I said, it is an AUTHENTIC TASCA. Only lunches, no dinners.

El Cortada

Next to the church of Las Angustias. It is said to be the best ray in paprika in Ayamonte (typical local dish). A classic bar in Ayamonte. Economical price.

Tasca Margallo

It is one of the best known tascas in Ayamonte. It has passed from grandfather to father and now to grandson. They only eat three things: fried fish, fried choco frito and tomato aliñado (they don't have anything else). Terrace in the street. If you like authentic and cheap you can't miss it.

El Costalero

Right on the steps of the Iglesia de las Angustias. A small bar decorated with Semana Santa themes. A magnificent terrace and delicious tapas. Inexpensive.

Merkajamón

A delicatessen shop that also has barrels as tables where you can taste Iberian products and some of the delicacies it sells. Ideal for a glass of wine or a bottle of wine and a few plates of Iberian ham, cured meats, cheeses, etc. Average price. Right in front of the marina. Go early.

Merkajamón

El Orta

One of the oldest food shops in Ayamonte with a very pleasant patio at the back. You can have tapas of "latas", Iberian cured meats, cheese... but they don't make hot tapas. Average price.

BEACH BARS AND SEAFOOD RESTAURANTS.

"Punta del Moral is Ayamonte's fishing neighbourhood. It's divided into the beach and the old town. Most restaurants in the old town are run by fishing families with their own boats."

La Bocana Restaurant.

In the shopping centre of the Marina Isla Canela, in Punta del Moral. A very good option for fish. Overlooking the entrance to the marina Marina Isla Canela and Isla Cristina. The quality is always good. Best to call for reservations.

Chiringuito Bombadil.

On the beach of Isla Canela. It is a beach bar on the sand of the beach. The food is great, especially the fish, coquinas, prawns... and the atmosphere is very pleasant. It is a good place to go in a group as there is plenty of space. Average price.

La Pamela.

In the old part of Punta del Moral. A place for tapas, raciones and half portions. Always fresh seafood as they have their own boats. Average price.

Restaurants Antonio.

Several restaurants in Punta de Moral typical for its rice dishes. They have several restaurants, one of them in the Marina Isla Canela, Antonio V and another one in the dock in front of the estuary facing Isla Cristina, Antonio IV. Please note that they do not accept reservations and therefore it is better to go early. Average price.

Casa Miguel Ángel y Micaela.

At the entrance to the old town of Punta del Moral. A reference in rice dishes... it is difficult not to be satisfied with their paellas and rice dishes. Also good fish and seafood stews. Reservations are necessary. www.casamiguelangelymicaela.com. Average price.

Restaurant A3-Casa Manolo.

Because good seafood cuisine also accepts creativity. It is a pleasure to go to A3 Casa Manolo and enjoy the classics and the innovation that comes out of its kitchens. It is located on Paseo del Pinillo, in Marina Isla Canela in Punta del Moral. Highly recommended... but book in advance. 640 23 22 22 16. Average price.

Paradise Beach Club.

On the beach of Isla Canela. A good diet will help us to keep our organism young, healthy and strong, because eating healthy is not a diet, it is a way of life... this is how they define themselves and this is what we find in this beach bar. we find in this chiringuito. I love to have a drink after enjoying a very interesting menu. interesting menu. Make a reservation to avoid being left out. Average price.

EATING IN PORTUGAL

"As you know, we are on the border with Portugal. One of the most beautiful excursions, which takes very little time, is to cross the Guadiana River with the boat that connects Ayamonte with Vila Real de Santo Antonio. The price is very affordable and it leaves every 30 or 60 minutes depending on the time of day. It is only a 5 minute walk from the centre of Vila Real. It is a good area for shopping and eating. The food in Portugal is generally good, a simple cuisine based on grill and charcoal. The rice dishes such as "longuerones", seafood, lobster, etc... are a good choice, as well as the typical Portuguese dish "Bacalhau" or the traditional Algarve dish "La Cataplana", a way of cooking fish and seafood in copper pots. Personally, in this area of the nearby Algarve, I would recommend six restaurants: Be careful that the Portuguese portions are sometimes very splendid... A "arroz caldoso" for 3 is enough for 4 or 5 if you are a normal eater."

Restaurant O Infante Panoramico.

In Playa Verde. It is about 15 km from the border. It is located at the top of a hill the Cabezo beach. It is a place to go at midday to enjoy those views. One of their typical dishes is the "Zapateira". Average price.

Typical Restaurant Casa Velha.

In Cacela Velha. The lobster rice dishes are the rice dishes are delicious and it is especially worth going at sunset to enjoy the small village of Cacela Velha and its spectacular views. It is located on a cliff opposite Mantarota Beach in the Ria Formosa National Park. Average price.

Chiringuito Pezinhos na Areia.

In Praia Verde, below O Infante restaurant. Panoramic view. Ideal for dinner. I love it. It is one of my favourites. In addition to the fish, you can eat spaghetti with clams and prawns with curry rice that will take your breath away! The place is ideal... Romantic night, here without a doubt... Price a bit high.

Restaurant Casa de comidas O Cisne.

In Vila Real de San Antonio. One of the best chicken in the area at very attractive prices. A typical restaurant where in addition to chicken they also have grilled meat and fish.

I personally love it! It is near the lighthouse of Vila Real. R. Padre Jorge Leiria 8.

Costa Restaurant.

Located in Fábrica. I have eaten rice dishes and they are honestly good. Fábrica is a small village just after Cacela Velha, at the foot of the beach.

As a curiosity, the mega villa on the left is owned by the former US Secretary of State, John Kerry, married to Theresa Heinz (the famous ketchup brand), as she is of Portuguese origin they decided to build this villa. Claude Picasso (Picasso's son) also has a house in this area. Average price.

Restaurante Costa

Portuguese patisseries are also a source of gluttony...

I only mention this out of curiosity or in case you have a couple of hours from Ayamonte and you want to take a trip to have a café con leche with a sweet. A pastry shop in Azinhal is called A Prova. Its sweets have a good reputation and it is inexpensive. Take the first exit off the motorway towards Beja, after about 7 km you will see the sign for Azinhal.

AT THE RECEPTION OF THE HOTEL WE CAN INFORM YOU ABOUT THE LATEST GASTRONOMIC AND CULTURAL NEWS.

The Algarve

The Algarve motorway is an “electronic” toll road. It is not possible to pay in cash because there are no staff to do so. There are different ways to pay but the most practical is by credit card. When you cross the international bridge, there are three lanes on the right, under some awnings, where you can insert your credit card, they read the car’s number plate and the number plate is linked to the card for a month. This way, every time you pass under the detectors along the motorway, you will be charged for the toll you have paid at the end of the day. In any case, the first two exits of the motorway are free of charge.

If you plan to go as far as Tavira (30km from the border), there is no need to pay, as you can take the second exit and continue along the 125. to pass under the awnings I indicate, you can continue directly on the motorway without stopping.

Between Tavira and Vila Real de Santo Antonio, which is the town in front of Ayamonte, there are several places of interest.

To start with, a good experience is to cross the border by ferry, crossing the Guadiana. You can put the vehicle on the ferry and return by motorway, crossing the International Bridge.

Vila Real de Santo Antonio is a commercial town, it has a nice square, a pleasant riverfront promenade and shops... towels, blankets, crockery and kitchenware are the typical purchases in Vila Real, not much more. Following the N125 from Vila Real or from the 2nd exit of the motorway, Altura-Montegordo, you will pass several roundabouts, after one which leads to Vilanova de Cacela, continue along the national road and keep an eye out for the entrance to Cacela Velha on the left. The beach in front of Cacela Velha, Mantarota, is very beautiful and is the beginning of the Ria Formosa National Park, which goes all the way to Faro.

Praia de Manta Rota. To get there, as indicated above, take the second exit off the motorway and take the N125 towards Faro.

Vila Real de Santo Antonio

Look out because after about 4 km, on the left, there is a sign indicating Manta Rota. Go in and drive to the end, there is a car park and a large square with walkways leading to the beach.

If you walk along the beach in the direction of Faro, you enter the Ria Formosa Natural Park. The beach in this stretch is like a sandy beach with the Ria Formosa at the back.

Following the N125 you will reach Tavira and see its Roman bridge. It is nice to stroll through the centre, go up to the castle and have a drink in one of the squares. Tavira is a must-see. It does not face the sea, because in between is the Ria Formosa. In Tavira there are two magnificent beaches.

The Ilha de Tavira: you arrive by car at a car park and take a small boat to cross to the beach (on the beach there are beach bars to eat).

(on the beach there are beach bars to eat). There is also a boat that leaves from the town centre.

Praia do Barril: From Tavira go to Santa Luzia (good place to eat fish and especially octopus) and continue to Pedras do Rei (10 minutes). You park and there is a little train that in 5 minutes will take you to the beach...

Really curious. Highly recommended also to go with children.

In Tavira there is also a new shopping centre, it is not very big.

Alcoutim is a traditional village in front of the Guadiana river, with all the charm of the Portuguese Algarve.

Fuzeta:

From Fuzeta you take little boats that take you to paradise islands. Exit 3 of the motorway, N125 direction Tavira, pass Tavira on the outside, roundabout with a boat sail and continue along the N125... pass Luz de Tavira and then on the left hand side there is an entrance signposted Fuzeta.

At the harbour you can take the sea taxis to the island of your choice on the map.

Olhão, the most important fishing port in the Algarve with a very interesting centre and market. The seafront overlooks the Ria Formosa and for me is a most relaxing sight.

Playa de Tavira

If you decide to continue to Faro, you have to continue on the N125. It is the capital of the Algarve. It has a walled old town and cathedral. A large shopping centre and little else to see.

To go to Alcoutim and Mértola.

Go over the bridge and take exit 1. Towards Beja, take the first exit on the Beja road, towards Campo Golf and Junqueira. Pass the small village of Azinhal (Prova pastry shop) a few kms away, take the crossroads that indicates Foz de Odeleite and do not leave this road that goes along the river until Alcoutim... And enjoy on this road what could be a 70's costumbrist film. of the 70's. It seems to me to be one of the most one of the most pleasant excursions.

From Alcoutim to Mértola you can't get lost, it's signposted. (From Ayamonte to Mértola is about 78 km, but it's done in a short time... If there's one thing the Algarvian and Alentejo roads have, it's the lack of traffic).

Algarvian and Alentejan roads, it's the lack of traffic).

Further afield, worth seeing.

Lagos (stylish tourist area, not overcrowded).

Sagres (historic village because this is where the discoverers), near Sagres Cape St. Vincent (the tip of the Algarve).

Benagil, the coastal cathedral of the Algarve. With rocks rising out of the water and cliffs forming coves. The beaches that appear in all the promotional photos of the Algarve are in the Lagoa area and the most famous is Praia da Marinha. It is about 130 km from Ayamonte.

Albufeira is the Portuguese Benidorm or Lloret de Mar, bars, restaurants and discos.

Vilamoura is the Portuguese Marbella, it is reduced to a luxury marina and golf courses.

Silves is a clear example of an inland village in the Algarve.

There is much more to see and enjoy but this is just a small guide. Do not hesitate to ask us any questions, We are happy to share our experiences with you.
